SVdP Men's Club General Meeting, Elections & Irish Dinner
March 14, 2018 in School Cafeteria

The SVDP Men's Club invites you to their General Membership meeting and last dinner of the school/parish year. It is your last great opportunity to catch up with all your friends over a wonderful dinner. It's an important meeting as we will elect the Club's Board for 2018-2019. We will serve famous Robert's Local Corned Beef, cabbage, carrot medley and plenty of camaraderie as a warm up to the big day.

SUPPORT at HOME: The Institute on Aging shares with us that San Francisco has launched a new pilot program Support at Home that provides financial assistance to adults 18 and over to help them afford home care! This is the first program of its kind and provides aid to those who need help in the home or even managing daily activities. Whether it is for recovering from a surgery or a permanent disability, this program was created to provide support and relief including errands, housework, non-medical personal care and other assistance. For information, call : 415-750-4111

CATHOLIC CHARITIES IMPACT REPORT 2017

Catholic Charities reports that "together" we served more than 35,000 individuals in need last year – homeless mothers and their children, seniors and adults with disabilities, children and youth, immigrants and refugees. People from all walks of life found hope, compassion, dignity and empowering resources through our services. THANK YOU...with your help last year:

- 3,024 clients were housed, safe and hopeful
- 4,944 refugees and immigrants received consultations and legal assistance
- 25,459 children and youth were nurtured and cared for
- 2,332 seniors and adults with disabilities found community and resources
