Of Mountains, Mines, and Music: Appalachia in Crisis –Calvary Presbyterian Church, 2515 Fillmore Street, Saturday, May 6 at 3pm - Join us for a pre-concert discussion about the intersection of environmental, cultural and social justice issues affecting greater Appalachia, especially issues created by the controversial practice of mountaintop removal mining. Talk will be lead by the Director of Music Ministries, Michael Conley and Marie Logan, a Fellow in the Coal Program at San Francisco based Earthjustice. Excerpts from two films, Songcatcher and Leveling Appalachia, will be shown. Free Admission and reception with light refreshments to follow.

From these Mountains, Sunday, May 7, at 3pm – Calvary Chancel Choir & Orchestra. Calvary Presbyterian Church, $20 donation.

“Living Faith” Archdiocesan Annual Appeal 2017

We are at 44.8% of our Goal, with the donations from 109 participants.

Our Parish Goal is $77,140.

Please pray and consider making a donation / pledge this year.

Thank you to all who have contributed!

Every donation is greatly appreciated!

If every member made some donation I am convinced we would reach our goal.

Archbishop Cordileone and Father Ken appreciate your prayer and support.

HAPPY EASTER!
